

PROF. ELIAS G. CARAYANNIS, George Washington University School of Business

WYKŁADY OTWARTE

1. The ecosystem as helix: regional co-opetitive entrepreneurial ecosystems as Quadruple/Quintuple Helix Innovation Models 4 marca 10.00-11.30
2. Society and Industry 5.0 – The Emerging Frontier of Digital Transformation and its impact on changes in spatial differentiation of development 5 kwietnia 9.00-11.00
3. Futures of European Education – Fractal Research, Education and Innovation Ecosystems (FREIE) taking into account the spatially diversified possibilities of its implementation 8 kwietnia 10.00-12.00
4. Democracy and the Environment as Endangered Species – Challenges and Opportunities for Theory, Policy, Practice and Politics (TP3) for the developmentally diversified regions of Europe 6 maja 10.00-12.00

WARSZTATY DLA DOKTORANTÓW

1. Creativity, Invention, Innovation, and Entrepreneurship Essentials (CI2E) – Setting the Stage for Thematically-Related, Evidence-based, Qualitative and Quantitative Research 11 marca 12.00-13.30
2. Smart Specialization Policies, Knowledge Production Systems and National Competitiveness in the Context of Digital Innovation Ecosystems (DIE) challenges and opportunities for regional and sectoral competitiveness 25 marca 12.00-13.30
3. Opening up the Black Box of the Phenomenon of Innovation: The Metrics, Measurement, Monitoring and Management (M4) Conundrum 1 kwietnia 12.00-13.30
4. Designing Efficacious Innovation and Entrepreneurship Ecosystems (EIE2) on a global, national, regional and local scale 8 kwietnia 12.00-13.30

KONSULTACJE INDYWIDUALNE: wtorki 8.30-9.30, po wcześniejszym uzgodnieniu z Profesorem (caraye@email.gwu.edu), do wiadomości dr Joanny Morawskiej-Jancelewicz (morawska@amu.edu.pl)